STAT

Thank you for your letter of 4 November relative to a possible connection with this agency.

I am enclosing forms for application for employment and personal history statements, each of which are required for all applicants for employment with CIA. If you will complete and return these forms, we will determine, upon their receipt, whether there is a suitable vacancy for which you might be considered and advise you further after such determination has been made. Your Naval status will not affect this matter in any way, nor will it be affected should you be employed by us.

The interest evinced in the Central Intelligence Agency by your letter is appreciated.

Very truly yours,

R. M. HILLENKOTTER
